

CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Cortland Works Career Center
99 Main Street
Cortland, New York 13045

Date: Thursday, November 12, 2009
Time: 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
County: Cortland
Contact: New York State Department of Labor

Phone: 1 (607) 756-7585
Web Site: www.labor.state.ny.us

Position(s):

Laboratory Technicians - Job Order Number - NY0922909

JOB SUMMARY: Responsible for conducting research, analyzing results and maintaining records. May work with plants, animals or on the cellular level, depending on the lab. Will have lab management responsibilities in molecular biology, mycology, clinical science, plant biology, etc. Prepare and maintain accurate and detailed records of research performed, techniques used and results. Create data summaries appropriate for publication and maintain a bibliography database. May hire, train and supervise undergraduate students in the lab. Assist in various research techniques and use of lab equipment. Will order lab and office supplies and maintaining databases. Provide instruction and maintain lab policies for the safe use and storage of chemicals and chemical waste according to OSHA standards. Establish, write and maintain all laboratory standard operating procedures and maintain training records.

JOB REQUIREMENTS: Entry level technician positions require a high school diploma and one to two years of training. Mid-level technical require a Bachelor's Degree and formal training of four years.

HOURS: Full time, will be discussed at interview

WAGE: Depends on Experience

BENEFITS & PERMANENT POSITIONS: Yes

LOCATION: Ithaca, New York

To Apply: Go direct to the recruitment at Cortland Works Career Center